President's Message

Friends,

Our mission statement tells us that we are to work in concert with you the New England District of Kiwanis to effect programs for the betterment of communities with a focus on young children. A vibrant and far reaching foundation is the goal. Robert Kennedy once said the future was not a gift but an achievement. The definition of achievement is something accomplished by superior ability or effort. Together we can make a difference. Some of our priorities are.

Communication between the Foundation and clubs. Directors doing programs on all aspects of the Foundation enhanced by banners that tell our story. We think that there is a story Kiwanians will like to hear. We will also see what clubs emphasize. We have a website and have recently added a face book page. As Kiwanis clubs trend to using the internet more frequently we are positioned to be able to reach more folks in a shorter time frame. Please friend us and share us.

A rising stock market along with several bequests was the impetus for our gains for the year. We cannot rely on the stock market forever. The income generated by the funds is not enough. We augment the income with unrestricted funds raised. We have tried many different fundraisers with various degrees of success. Every Kiwanian is a member of the Foundation. This year we are asking that you take the next step and become a sustaining Member. Twenty five dollars a year is a small price to pay. Those monies, unrestricted, can be used on the corner where need meets opportunity. I see the day when excesses are returned to clubs in grants and other manners.

Clubs are asked to put in their budget line items for annual giving {unrestricted} and red jackets and crest upgrades {endowment} In these difficult economic times clubs can pay in installments. The red jacket and crest upgrades are a great way to honor members.

Kiwanians are being asked to become sustaining members .We also ask that they join the the John Morton Society. For an outright gift of five thousand or more dollars or a planned gift commitment of the same amount you are leaving a legacy. Leaving a gift for those that follow.

It has truly been a privilege and honor to serve as you president. The future looks and exciting. I look forward to meeting and working with Kiwanians all throughout New England as we strive to make this foundation and Kiwanis the best it can possibly be.

Sincerely,

Al Paul

Mission Statement

From KFNE Policy Manual

The Kiwanis Foundation of New England, Inc., (KFNE) is the 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable Fund-raising arm of the New England District of Kiwanis International (NEDK). The mission of the Foundation is to work in partnership with the New England District of Kiwanis and others to effect programs for the betterment of communities in New England and beyond, with special focus given to programs which affect young children.

History of the Foundation

The Kiwanis Foundation of New England was incorporated as a 501c(3) charity in 1953. It was initially created to collect tax-deductible funds from Kiwanians and other contributors, for a scholarship program to benefit a student in each of the six New England states.

The $3000 budget for the scholarship program (to fund six $500 awards) was quite high for the mid 1950s. It was this initiative that eventually led to the creation of the "Friends of the Foundation" program. Each contributor of $1000 received a Foundation Red Jacket.

In 1978 the Foundation took a bold step. They asked then-President, Harold "Hap" Gerrish, DMD, to "search for a dramatic and appropriate project that KFNE could undertake and that could be renowned throughout New England and funded by the New England District of Kiwanis (NEDK) membership." With almost 10,000 Kiwanis members in the district at the time, a focused project could have a huge impact in the region.

Dr. Gerrish approached Dr. Ed Wyman, head of the Fracture Clinic at the Massachusetts General Hospital. After much discussion, Dr. Wyman suggested helping traumatized children. Doctors at the time knew that children reacted differently than adults to trauma, but no area hospital was conducting research. Dr. Wyman knew Dr. Jerry Grossman, who was leaving Massachusetts General Hospital for Boston's Floating Hospital. He was to head a new state-of-the-art pediatric clinic.

After numerous meetings with Floating Hospital officials, a project was presented to the KFNE board; the research center would be supported by Kiwanis. The center would focus on treatments administered to children, and share results throughout the medical community. Education was also a priority; paramedic personnel would learn the difference in medical treatments between children and adults.

The cost of the program was $245,000 per year, and New England members accepted the challenge. For nearly ten years, clubs and members gave to the Foundation for KPTI.

In 1990 a proposal to permanently fund KPTI was accepted by the Board of Trustees. A $3 million endowment (at an assumed 8% return) would provide funds for fixed expense at the time. Although the Foundation hasn't missed a payment, declining market rates have affected the project. The success of this important program will depend on the continued generosity of Kiwanians and friends around New England.

Contributions to the KPTI endowment are still needed. Red Jackets and Crest Upgrades will continue to benefit the pediatric program.

Today, the Foundation has created new ways to raise money, especially unrestricted money, so that other projects can be adopted. The Morton Society is one of the newest programs, and has been a success since its inception.

A new initiative was launched to raise an additional $1.5 million dollars which will increase our endowment to $5 million dollars, (which at an assumed rate of return of 5%) should insure that we will continue to make our payment of $245,000 each year to KPTI. This initiative is called "Strive for Five". We anticipated raising the additional funds through the "Shaw's Register Receipt Program"; conducting a 10K Walk, the Gerrish/Engdahl Memorial Golf Tournament, and the KFNE Raffle.

Red Jackets & Kiwaniis Pediatric Trauma Institute

The Red Jacket is awarded to people who have shown great support of the KPTI Endowment Fund. They also make great gifts for special members of your club, or special people in your life.
