President's Message

I am pleased to report on the activities of your foundation. Despite a shaky economy and difficult fundraising climate our numbers remain steady. Having been in Kiwanis for twenty years the generosity of Kiwanians throughout New England is no surprise.

Your foundation board thanks you for each donation.

A review of the year should start with our joint venture with Tufts known as Kiwanis Pediatric Trauma Institute. Started in 1981 KPTI is our flagship program. Designed for the care of children whom were victims of injury, trauma, it would be impossible to convey the breadth of our reach. Whenever identified as president of the foundation other Kiwanians from around the country marvel at what we accomplished. Our joint venture involves education, research and public information. I am pleased to announce that this year Tufts maintained their Level 1 Pediatric Trauma Status. The high level of performance that we have come to expect carries on. Special appreciation goes to the staff at Tufts: Leslie Rideout, Vickie Guerra and Dr. Walter Schwals.

Every Kiwanian in New England is a basic member of the Foundation. This year we are asking Kiwanians to step up to sustaining membership. Pledge cards were mailed to all in the district and the early response was good. Monies received are to be sent in grants to the clubs. Patterned after several Kiwanis districts the board felt that we should be the vehicle to make Kiwanis the service organization in New England. David Peterson gets great credit for making sure this project is off and running. We welcome any ideas and thoughts Kiwanians have on this project.

We are making strides in improving our communications with you. Anyone can now go on our website (KFNE.ORG) and look at our books and our audit. We also intend to send our board out to tell you our story. We think it is a good one.

We want you to be involved with the Foundation. Ask questions, invite us to speak at meetings or become a club representative. Take a vested interest in your foundation.

Clubs we ask that you budget for the Annual Giving and the red jacket for that deserving Kiwanian. When possible increase your donations. Remember, we can split the costs into several payments. Every donation is precious and is treated as such. We thank you in advance.

In June at the Annual Meeting there is the excitement of elections and who is in or out. I look forward working with the new members but at the same time a sadness for those whose time has ended. Each Kiwanian brings his or her perspective to the problems we face and it is my privilege to work with all of them. I wish to thank Alice Savage, Bill Jenkins, Art Berardino, Dick England, Bob Grills and Dave Wyskiel for their efforts. My secretary, Geena DeLisle and treasurer Wayne Spenser do yeoman's work and I could not succeed without them. Ann Beale maintains the office quietly and efficiently and we thank her. Finally the board wishes to congratulate Alice Savage on her recent appointment to the Kiwanis International Foundation Board. We wish her all the best.

Next year is the 60th anniversary of your and I am sure you will be hearing more on this in the future. Until then I remain yours in service.

Sincerely,
Al Paul

Mission Statement

From KFNE Policy Manual

The Kiwanis Foundation of New England, Inc., (KFNE) is the 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable Fund-raising arm of the New England District of Kiwanis International (NEDK). The mission of the Foundation is to work in partnership with the New England District of Kiwanis and others to effect programs for the betterment of communities in New England and beyond, with special focus given to programs which affect young children.

History of the Foundation

The Kiwanis Foundation of New England was incorporated as a 501c(3) charity in 1953. It was initially created to collect tax-deductible funds from Kiwanians and other contributors, for a scholarship program to benefit a student in each of the six New England states.

The $3000 budget for the scholarship program (to fund six $500 awards) was quite high for the mid 1950s. It was this initiative that eventually led to the creation of the "Friends of the Foundation" program. Each contributor of $1000 received a Foundation Red Jacket.

In 1978 the Foundation took a bold step. They asked then-President, Harold "Hap" Gerrish, DMD, to "search for a dramatic and appropriate project that KFNE could undertake and that could be renowned throughout New England and funded by the New England District of Kiwanis (NEDK) membership." With almost 10,000 Kiwanis members in the district at the time, a focused project could have a huge impact in the region.

Dr. Gerrish approached Dr. Ed Wyman, head of the Fracture Clinic at the Massachusetts General Hospital. After much discussion, Dr. Wyman suggested helping traumatized children. Doctors at the time knew that children reacted differently than adults to trauma, but no area hospital was conducting research. Dr. Wyman knew Dr. Jerry Grossman, who was leaving Massachusetts General Hospital for Boston's Floating Hospital. He was to head a new state-of-the-art pediatric clinic.

After numerous meetings with Floating Hospital officials, a project was presented to the KFNE board; the research center would be supported by Kiwanis. The center would focus on treatments administered to children, and share results throughout the medical community. Education was also a priority; paramedic personnel would learn the difference in medical treatments between children and adults.

The cost of the program was $245,000 per year, and New England members accepted the challenge. For nearly ten years, clubs and members gave to the Foundation for KPTI.

In 1990 a proposal to permanently fund KPTI was accepted by the Board of Trustees. A $3 million endowment (at an assumed 8% return) would provide funds for fixed expense at the time. Although the Foundation hasn't missed a payment, declining market rates have affected the project. The success of this important program will depend on the continued generosity of Kiwanians and friends around New England.

Contributions to the KPTI endowment are still needed. Red Jackets and Crest Upgrades will continue to benefit the pediatric program.

Today, the Foundation has created new ways to raise money, especially unrestricted money, so that other projects can be adopted. The Morton Society is one of the newest programs, and has been a success since its inception.

An initiative was launched to raise an additional $1.5 million dollars which will increase our endowment to $5 million dollars, (which at an assumed rate of return of 5%) should insure that we will continue to make our payment of $245,000 each year to KPTI. This initiative is called "Strive for Five".

Red Jackets & Kiwanis Pediatric Trauma Institute

The Red Jacket is awarded to people who have shown great support of the KPTI Endowment Fund. They also make great gifts for special members of your club, or special people in your life.
