President's Message

It is an honor to serve our Kiwanis Foundation of New England, and work on the programs we support. I am humbled by following so many incredible men and women who have filled this position before me.

Although I didn't know every past president, I imagine their commitment to our organization. The ones who I have known have been mentors to me, whether they know it or not. Among them, I thank Gene Burman, Ann Beale, Alan Hartnett, Marty Olsen, Jim Levesque, Al Cirillo, Dave Lockwood, Hap Gerrish, Paul Donato, Art Creighton, and Al Paul. I only wish I had met and known all our past leaders.

Of course, without committed board members, our foundation would be an empty shell. Our board is small, and each person's contributions are extraordinary. Please look at our list of board members, and thank them for their service to Kiwanis. My sincere thanks to each board member, with a special shout-out to Daryl Silvia, our district apparel guru, and especially to Secretary Geana Delisle and Treasurer Wayne Spencer. Their hours of volunteerism are so appreciated.

The most important people in our foundation are you, the members and principal donors to KFNE. Between you and your clubs, we are able to support the important work of our district foundation. What programs do we support? The are three:

1. KPTI, our signature program, including the Hap Gerrish Pediatric Trauma Registry.
2. Scholarships to students in our Service Leadership Programs.
3. Grants to Kiwanis clubs in New England and Bermuda

Awarding scholarships is how our foundation began, and it's an important program to the many youth who have been recipients over the years.

Our grant program is the newest initiative of our foundation. In just a few years, it has grown from an idea to a viable program to support clubs around New England and Bermuda.

While we cannot take credit for the work of the surgeons at the Kiwanis Pediatric Trauma Institute, please know that thier support of our programs is stonger than ever. We can take credit for the outreach programs coordinated by Vicki Guerina for many years, and now Anne Keliher. While bike safety is in the forefront, we must find new ways to support Early Childhood Injury Prevention kits which now cost $5.84 each. They are in high demand due to the great work of Ava Adams-Talley, Children and Youth Services committee chair. Her work on Young Children: Priority One is improving the lives of children right here at home.

When it comes to funding our programs, we have to work harder than ever. Today there is much competition for dollars raised by your clubs, as well as your individual philanthropy. Please remember that our programs are improving the lives of youth right here at home. Continue to support our international projects; we are changing the world with the help of our friends at UNICEF. Still, let's always remember our local pride in our homegrown projects.

Three ways you can support our work are as follows:

1. the Red Jacket program and Crest Upgrades,
2. Annual Gifts by clubs and individuals, and
3. the Morton Medal.

Please consider awarding a member of your club or community with a Red Jacket. Level up your jacket. (This is something you can spread over three years if you wish.) Give to our Annual Gift program, and add the Morton Medal gift to your estate planning. (KFNE can be named in your will as a beneficiary.) Learn more about these programs at <http://www.kfne.org/giving.html>.

Thank you for all you do in Serving the Children of the World.

Yours in Kiwanis service,
John J. Maihos

P.S. If you ever want a KFNE speaker at your club, please write to me personally at president@kfne.org, or call me at 978-804-7143.

Mission Statement

From KFNE Policy Manual

The Kiwanis Foundation of New England, Inc., (KFNE) is the 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable fund-raising arm of the New England District of Kiwanis International (NEDK). The mission of the Foundation is to work in partnership with the New England District of Kiwanis and others to effect programs for the betterment of communities in New England and beyond, with special focus given to programs which affect young children.

History of the Foundation

The Kiwanis Foundation of New England was incorporated as a 501c(3) charity in 1953. It was initially created to collect tax-deductible funds from Kiwanians and other contributors, for a scholarship program to benefit a student in each of the six New England states.

The $3000 budget for the scholarship program (to fund six $500 awards) was quite high for the mid 1950s. It was this initiative that eventually led to the creation of the "Friends of the Foundation" program. Each contributor of $1000 received a Foundation Red Jacket.

In 1978 the Foundation took a bold step. They asked then-President, Harold "Hap" Gerrish, DMD, to "search for a dramatic and appropriate project that KFNE could undertake and that could be renowned throughout New England and funded by the New England District of Kiwanis (NEDK) membership." With almost 10,000 Kiwanis members in the district at the time, a focused project could have a huge impact in the region.

Dr. Gerrish approached Dr. Ed Wyman, head of the Fracture Clinic at the Massachusetts General Hospital. After much discussion, Dr. Wyman suggested helping traumatized children. Doctors at the time knew that children reacted differently than adults to trauma, but no area hospital was conducting research. Dr. Wyman knew Dr. Jerry Grossman, who was leaving Massachusetts General Hospital for Boston's Floating Hospital. He was to head a new state-of-the-art pediatric clinic.

After numerous meetings with Floating Hospital officials, a project was presented to the KFNE board; the research center would be supported by Kiwanis. The center would focus on treatments administered to children, and share results throughout the medical community. Education was also a priority; paramedic personnel would learn the difference in medical treatments between children and adults.

The cost of the program was $245,000 per year, and New England members accepted the challenge. For nearly ten years, clubs and members gave to the Foundation for KPTI.

In 1990 a proposal to permanently fund KPTI was accepted by the Board of Trustees. A $3 million endowment (at an assumed 8% return) would provide funds for fixed expense at the time. Although the Foundation hasn't missed a payment, declining market rates have affected the project. The success of this important program will depend on the continued generosity of Kiwanians and friends around New England.

Contributions to the KPTI endowment are still needed. Red Jackets and Crest Upgrades will continue to benefit the pediatric program.

Today, the Foundation has created new ways to raise money, especially unrestricted money, so that other projects can be adopted. The Morton Society is one of the newest programs, and has been a success since its inception.

An initiative was launched to raise an additional $1.5 million dollars which will increase our endowment to $5 million dollars, (which at an assumed rate of return of 5%) should insure that we will continue to make our payment of $245,000 each year to KPTI. This initiative is called "Strive for Five".

Annual Gifts

The Annual Club Gift Campaign (formerly “Saddlebag Campaign”) runs from October 1 to September 30. It provides the Foundation with its primary source of unrestricted income. The funds help determine what programs the Foundation will be able to continue to support.

Suggested annual donation starts at $10 per member or $150 for clubs of less than 15 members.
